Health and Wellness for Small Business Owners

With so much information available on the internet about Health & Wellness (think Dr Google) how do you know what exactly is right for you? Working for yourself or in a small business is pressure enough with so many hats to juggle every day. If/when you get sick or rundown or even burnt out what happens to your business? Chrysalis for Women are holding a Workshop on Friday 27th April from 9am to 12.30pm in the Trust Room where Deborah will help you understand how to look after your own health better.

More details and register at <https://chrysalisforwomen.com/event/health-wellness-small-business-owners/> Cost: $60 (member); $100 (Non-member)

Shut up and Dance

Wanna dance but think you're too uncoordinated? Well Shut Up & Dance are here to liberate the bedroom Beyoncé's with their fun, relaxed dance classes, teaching routines inspired by films and music videos. Classes will be held Monday evenings from 7.30pm to 8.30pm in the hall, starting Monday 30th April. Every class is different, and a surprise, so everyone's as clueless as each other. Oh, and there's no mirrors, so the clumsiest of us get to enjoy dancing for how good it feels, not how it looks.

They're offering a discount for those who want to attend their newest location at the Johnsonville Community Centre: 10 Trip's are $140 until April 29th with the promo code JVILLE20%. One per person, offer valid for first-timers only. For more information and to enrol www.shutupanddance.co
